hearing the Voice of God

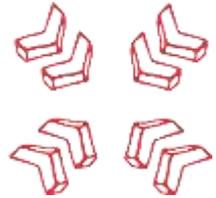

Acts 15:22-35; John 14:15-31
For Individuals and Life Groups
November 8, 2015

Introduction:

Does God still speak today? How do we hear the voice of God?

If he does speak, how can we know it is him? Are there misunderstandings about hearing the voice of God that get in the way? In this six week study we will explore ways that God still speaks today.

What role does the Holy Spirit fulfill in listening to God? How can we develop sensitivity to the Holy Spirit. From the book of John and Acts we will explore the role of the Spirit in hearing the voice of God.

Into the scriptures

Read: Acts 15:22-35; John 14:15-31

What do you notice about the passage itself? (Structure, repeated words or ideas, unique words, main points...)

How does each passage describe the function of the Holy Spirit in hearing God?

How does each passage describe our role in hearing the voice of God?

How do these passages reveal about God?

Into my life

From these passages what is a challenge to you in hearing God through the Holy Spirit? Why?

What is the promise to claim hold of in this passage?

How will you be different this week because of what you have just read?

Into the world

If my sensitivity to the Spirit of God is directly related to the health of my relationship with God, in what way do I need to grow closer to him? What difference would this make in the world? (Pray for each other from this question)

A little about Westwood Church...

We believe that God changes lives!

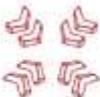

That motivates us to...

Bring Jesus into Life

By...

...becoming an increasingly healthy, vibrant and effective witness for Jesus in Prince George and around the world!

We do this by engaging in three things:

GATHER

Sunday mornings to celebrate and learn about God

GROUPS

Weekly meetings that go deeper in relationships with each other and God

GO

Serving in the church and community to present Jesus to the world
