We do this by engaging in three things:

Nehemiah 10

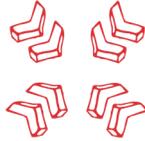

For Individuals and Life Groups

March 13, 2016

Introduction:

History is full of great leaders, and Nehemiah is certainly one of them. Join us for a seven-week teaching series that explores some of the timeless life and leadership principles that we can learn from the ancient cupbearer to King Artaxerxes.

Into the scriptures

Read: Nehemiah 10:28-39

What do you notice about the passage itself? (Structure, repeated words or ideas, unique words, main points...)

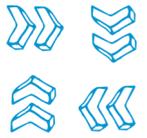

What are the commitments the people make to God and each other?

Why is it important for the Israelites not to intermarry with outside nations (See: Exod. 34:12-16; Deut. 7:1-4)?

Why is the Sabbath important (See: Deut. 5:12-15)?

What does this passage reveal about God? Nehemiah? The Israelites?

Into my life

The Israelites turn repentance into action by committing to change the way they handle relationships, time and money. Which of these areas in your life needs to be impacted by repentance and change? Be specific.

Israel renews its commitment to observing The Sabbath. What activities or commitments come up against you practicing regular periods of rest? What wrong thinking does an inability to rest reveal?

Read John 14:21-24. How is obedience linked to loving Jesus in this passage? Is it possible to love Jesus and not obey Him?

How will you be different today because of what you have just read?

Into the world

How could the Israelites making these commitments have a positive impact on themselves and the world? What about the church? What can you commit to?
