Acts 1:1-11

For Individuals and Life Groups

October 2, 2016

Introduction:

The book of Acts is the sequel to Luke. It opens with a greeting to Theophilus, who was also the intended recipient of Luke's gospel. In Acts 1:1 Luke references his "former book" and picks up where he left off. In this passage, Luke is building on the Great Commission challenge Jesus gave in Luke 24. His promise of the Holy Spirit is what will be the start of a revolution that is still alive today.

Into the scriptures

Read: Acts 1:1-11

What do you notice about the passage itself? (Structure, repeated words or ideas, unique words, main points...)

What is the power that is talked about in this passage? What evidence is there that Jesus depended on this power?

Describe the relationship of Jesus with his disciples?

In your own words describe what they would be witnesses of.

Into my life

Have you ever felt powerless talking about Jesus with people? What happened in those situations? What held you back? What gave you courage?

How do you feel about being called God's witnesses? What scares you? What gives you confidence?

Is there some place that you think God is calling you to be his witness? Work? School? Home? (Pray for each other in this)

Into the world

We all have friends who need Jesus. Name a friend our friends and pray for them as a group.
