Light

Why do Christians fight with each other?

“Anyone who claims to be in the light but hates his brother is still in the darkness. Whoever loves his brother lives in the light, and there is nothing in him to make him stumble” (I John 2:9-10).

Why is love important?

“Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love” (I John 4:7-8).

What might love look like as brothers and sisters of Westwood Church live this out with each other?

Care. How do I care for others?

This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters (I John 3:16).

“Honor one another above yourselves” (Romans 12:10).

“Show proper respect to everyone” (I Peter 2:17).

Share. Who am I helping?

If anyone has material possessions and sees his brother in need but has no pity on him, how can the love of God be in him? Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth (I John 3:17-18).

Prayer. Am I praying for others?

“I have revealed you to those whom you gave me out of the world. They were yours; you gave them to me and they have obeyed your word. Now they know that everything you have given me comes from you. For I gave them the words you gave me and they accepted them.

They knew with certainty that I came from you, and they believed that you sent me. I pray for them. I am not praying for the world, but for those you have given me, for they are yours (John 17:6-9).

By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another (John 13:35).
